A sketch of a web page layout for a user registration form. In the top-left corner, there is a hamburger menu icon (three horizontal lines). In the top-right corner, the text "Usuario" is followed by a small circle. The main content area contains three labels: "Nombre", "Curso", and "Correo", each followed by a horizontal input field. To the right of these fields is a large rounded rectangle with a green border, containing the word "Foto" in bold.

A sketch of a web page layout for a school information form. In the top-left corner, there is a hamburger menu icon (three horizontal lines). In the top-right corner, the text "Usuario" is followed by a small circle. The main content area contains three labels: "Ubicacion de la escuela", "Telefono de la escuela", and "Correo de la escuela", each preceded by a radio button. To the right of these labels are two rounded rectangles with green borders, each containing the word "Imagen".
